Having more than 15 years of healthcare experience, Amy Collins is the founding Member of Medical Practice Management, LLC in Mobile, Alabama. She leads a healthcare team of trained professionals that provide billing/collections, practice management, consulting, medical coding, fee schedule analysis, information technology (IT) and human resource management to physicians and other healthcare providers throughout the southeast.

Prior to forming MPM, Amy worked as a healthcare consultant, both independently and for a top ten regional public accounting firm. She provided services such as practice management, operational/billing assessments, benchmarking and strategic planning for physician and hospital clients. In addition to her role as a healthcare consultant, Amy also has fifteen years of valuable experience as a practice administrator and has a complete understanding of physician billing and operational needs.

Amy holds a Bachelor of Science in Biomedical Sciences from the University of South Alabama. She received a Masters degree in Business Administration from SpringHill College. Amy is a member of the professional organization Medical Group Management Association (MGMA) of Alabama and Healthcare Information and Management Systems Society (HIMSS). Devoted to her community, she serves on the board of the Penelope House, a shelter home for abused women and children, and participates in other annual fundraising and charity events.
