Katie leads the marketing and business development efforts for Medical Practice Management, LLC. She is responsible for educating healthcare companies and physicians about MPM practice management solutions. In addition to her marketing duties, Katie also assists with special projects such as patient satisfaction surveys and community physician needs assessments. With eight years of healthcare experience, she has previously worked for a top ten regional accounting firm and a private outpatient imaging company, where her responsibilities focused on hospitals, health systems and physician practices. During this time, she consistently created and managed marketing initiatives that produced positive results and exceeded company growth goals.

She completed her undergraduate work at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville where she received her BA in Speech Communication with an emphasis in Marketing. She is currently a member of Healthcare Information and Management Systems Society (HIMSS) and has been involved with the Nashville Medical Group Management Association (NMGMA), Nashville Healthcare Council (NHCC) and Tennessee Healthcare Financial Management Association (THFMA).
